Announcing progress in dermatological research, Promius Pharma shares 9 posters at Fall Clinical Dermatology Conference®

Princeton, NJ, USA. October 13, 2017 – Promius Pharma LLC announced today that it is presenting 9 posters at the Fall Clinical Dermatology Conference® in Las Vegas, NV, October 12-15, 2017.

The posters represent Promius Pharma's ongoing commitment to dermatological science. "Promius Pharma's forward-looking approach is a critical investment in the future of medical dermatology research," said Dr Mark Lebwohl of Icahn School of Medicine at Mount Sinai. "Findings from these studies will enable us to better understand a number of disease states and devise new strategies to provide relief."

Posters include findings for the disease states of acne, psoriasis, and head lice.
